WO 1 2 3 4 5 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT 6 7 FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA 8 9 United States of America, No. CR 11-50031-PHX-SRB Plaintiff, 10 DETENTION ORDER 11 VS. Ignacio Leyva-Tanori, 12 Defendant. 13 14 15 On July 18, 2012, defendant Ignacio Leyva-Tanori appeared before this Court on a 16 petition for revocation of supervised release. The Court considered the information provided 17 to the Court, and the arguments of counsel in determining whether the defendant should be released on conditions set by the Court. 18 19 The Court finds that the defendant, having previously been convicted and placed on 20 supervised release, and having appeared before the Court in connection with a petition to revoke 21 his supervised release, has failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence that he is not 22 likely to flee or pose a danger to the safety of the community if released pursuant to Rule 46(d), and Rule 32.1(a)(6), Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and 18 U.S.C. § 3143. 23 24 In light of the particular circumstances of Defendant's criminal history, the unauthorized 25 trip to Mexico is especially troubling. This, combined with the Defendant's alleged failure to 26 comply with the essential condition of keeping the Probation Office informed of his 27 whereabouts, and the allegations of missed substance abuse testing all add to the risk of danger. 28

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that defendant be detained pending further proceedings. DATED this 18^{th} day of July, 2012.

David K. Duncan United States Magistrate Judge
